Student papers, projects, and other academic creations, whether in printed or electronic form, nearly always enjoy automatic copyright protection as soon as the work is fixed in some tangible form. Student academic creations might also constitute academic records and be subject to privacy protections under other federal and state laws.

Kansas Board of Regents Intellectual Property Policy (Section A.5), the Student Records Policy, and other federal and state laws (e.g., the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and the Kansas Open Records Act) may define and protect student records and other privacy interests relating to the use and release of materials arising out of or prepared for educational endeavors.

By signing the ETD Release form, the student is specifically granting a non-exclusive distribution license to the University of Kansas for the purposes set forth in this document, authorizing disclosure of the student's work to others, and is relinquishing and waiving any claims that may arise under any statutory or common law protections as a result of the use of this work for these purposes.

Non-exclusive Distribution License
To properly administer this Research Repository and preserve the contents for future use, the University of Kansas (KU) requires certain permissions from you, the author(s) or copyright owner. By accepting this license, you still retain copyright to your work. You do not give up the right to submit the work to publishers or other repositories.

By accepting this license, you grant to the University of Kansas the non-exclusive right to reproduce, translate (as defined below), and/or distribute your submission (including the metadata and abstract) worldwide, in any format or medium for non-commercial, academic purposes only.

KU will clearly identify your name(s) as the author(s) or owner(s) of the submission, including a statement of your copyright, and will not make any alteration, other than as allowed by this license, to your submission.

You agree that KU may, without changing the content, translate the submission to any medium or format and keep more than one copy for the purposes of security, back up and preservation. You also agree that authorized readers of your work have the right to use it for non-commercial, academic purposes as defined by the "fair use" doctrine of U.S. copyright law, so long as all attributions and copyright statements are retained. If the submission contains material for which you do not hold copyright and that exceeds fair use, you represent that you have obtained the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to grant KU the rights required by this license, and that such third-party owned material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission.

A. The University of Kansas will accept the thesis or dissertation only if the student signs this release form

By signing below I agree to the terms of the Non-exclusive Distribution License and attest to the accuracy of all the information I have supplied on both pages of this document. [note changes in language here].

This form is not complete until page 1 and page 2 have been read and signed where necessary.

A.1. COPYRIGHT: You affirm that the content of your submission does not, to the best of your knowledge, infringe upon anyone’s copyright through, but not limited to, plagiarism, unapproved reproduction of materials or improper citation.

I understand and agree:

_____ Yes

_____ N/A – document does not contain copyrighted materials and includes proper citations.

_____ Material usage falls under fair use (legally binding, keep fair use checklist on file)

A.2. ACCESS: Your thesis or dissertation will be made available in two databases: KU ScholarWorks, an open access database where the thesis and dissertation will be publically accessible on the web and available for indexing by search engines such as Google, and ProQuest/UMI, a subscription-based database

A.3. DELAYED ACCESS: Embargo - delayed release or delayed availability of scholarly work due to patents pending, sensitive data or pending publication. Embargoing the thesis or dissertation on KU ScholarWorks requires two steps:

a. Obtain permission from the director of graduate studies in your department and school dean using this form.

b. Select the embargo option when submitting your dissertation or thesis electronically.

For more information on the policy and procedure for embargo, go to http://www.graduate.ku.edu/04-02_etd.shtml. Your decision to embargo or delay access to your thesis or dissertation on KU ScholarWorks does not apply to ProQuest/UMI. You must submit a separate request to ProQuest/UMI to embargo or delay release of your thesis or dissertation on that database.

I want my thesis or dissertation to be embargoed:

_____ No, sign form and submit to your school/College office. By indicating “No” you understand that your work will be publicly available on the web via KU ScholarWorks (ProQuest/UMI must be approached separately).

_____ Yes, (If “Yes” section B must be completed) Note that embargoes will expire at the end of the given period starting with the month of graduation. Requests for renewals must be received by the Graduate School one full month before the embargo expires. Upon expiration of an embargo your work will be publicly available on the web via KU ScholarWorks (ProQuest/UMI must be approached separately).

B. EMBARGO APPROVAL: Approval from the director of graduate studies in your department is required for an embargo

_____ 6 month embargo ____ 1 year embargo _____ 2 year embargo

The reason for my request of an embargo:

My work contains patentable information ____; My work includes research restricted information ____; My work includes government information that must remain confidential for a period of time ____; I intend to have my work (or portions of it) published and expect the publisher to require an embargo ____; Other (please specify) ________________.
